No. 80 League of Women Voters of the La Crosse Area Newsletter Feb. 2005

THE PRESIDENT'S PODIUM

YOO HOO! Are you out there? We are now on our way to serious legislative issues so when proposals are hitting the Legislators desks, League will be ready to let them know what we think. It is uniquely satisfying that as a member of LWV we can promote our positions and take action on legislation.

LIVELY ISSUES: We usually have a meeting where we talk about local and state program/study ideas for the coming year. We have local positions on various subjects and have used them to express out opinions or to speak at public events. We do not have time to have separate meeting this year but your ideas are welcome and the board will consider a local study if there is an idea and the interest to make it happen. If you have an idea for a new local study or want to change an old position, please send me an email or you can call and leave a voice mail for me. I work 40 plus hours a week so it is hard to reach me and in the evenings. I either work late or am at the pool. If you leave a message with my spouse, it is likely that I will not get the message so email is still the best.

MEMBERSHIPS: If you have not renewed, please due so as soon as possible as we will be entering the paid members on our National Website and if you have not paid, your membership will be dropped. We need your support even if you cannot attend the meetings or serve on committees. Your membership money helps League lobby our positions on the national and state levels. Our local lobbying relies on the old gumshoe technique. If you are intending to send a check and do not want to be dropped, please leave a message with Dee Peacock or Jean Marck. You can always let me know as well and I will get the message out there.

Due to my work schedule, I was not able to attend the mayor's forum, but it sounded like it was interesting!.

You and me are League
So keep the spirit high,
Your membership will feed
The action that will not be denied!

LA CROSSE MAYORAL ELECTION

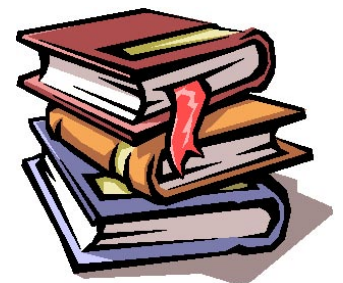

The League of Women Voters of the La Crosse Area sponsored a "Candidates Luncheon" for La Crosse mayoral candidates at Forest Hills Golf Course Restaurant on January 27, 2005. Roxanne Reynolds served as moderator. The candidates in attendance at the luncheon were Dustin Bagstad, Chip DeNure, Neil Duresky, Jerry Every, George Italiano, Mark Johnsrud, Audrey Kader, David Loomis, Bernie Maney, Jeffrey Netzer, Jon Olson, and Deak Swanson. Candidates were asked to submit answers to the 5 questions covered at the luncheon for posting on the LWV website. Those responses can be found at:

LWVWI Education Study

On Tuesday, February 15, at the City Brewery Beer Stube restaurant (1111 3rd St. S.), there will be a 11:30 a.m. lunch buffet, followed by a brief discussion of the Education consensus questions and study. Following the discussion, we will vote on the questions. Each person is responsible for reading the background materials that are all online at http://www.lwvwi.org/education_study_resources.htm. If anyone does not have access to the internet, contact Ellen Rosborough or visit a public library to gain access to the documents. The consensus questions are included as an insert in this bulletin and are posted online. No reservation is necessary for the luncheon.

LEAGUE AWARDED $225,000 CIVIL LIBERTIES GRANT FROM MACARTHUR FOUNDATION

January 28, 2005

The League of Women Voters Education Fund (LWVEF) received a $225,000 grant from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation to coordinate a national public dialogue about the delicate balance between civil liberties and homeland security, entitled "Local Voices: Citizen Conversations on Civil Liberties and Secure Communities." The project will begin immediately.

"In this post-September 11th world, it is critical for all communities to explore the interrelationship between these two important topics," said LWVEF Chair Kay J. Maxwell. "This builds on the League's role as a trusted convener of community discussions, as well as our historic leadership in the area of civil liberties. We are thrilled to begin this project."

The grant provides for the League to develop materials, train local facilitators and create a public dialogue. This project will foster citizen participation in large League-led conversations about the relationship between civil liberties and homeland security. While all of the League's 900 local and state affiliates will have opportunities to work on this project, 10 select cities will be the focus of the LWVEF work. Representing ethnic, economic, and geographically diverse locations, the outcomes of the dialogues in these locations will be gathered, analyzed, and compared with larger national trends. A final report will be released in fall 2005 to coincide with the national debate about the sunset provisions of the USA PATRIOT Act.

This grant will continue the League's traditional leadership in the area of civil liberties. In the 1950s, the League led a national campaign, The Freedom Agenda, to educate the public about their rights and to combat the impact of the McCarthy hearings. More recently, Leagues across the country have held educational forums about the USA PATRIOT Act, and the organization has lobbied Congress on related pieces of legislation. The MacArthur grant will allow the League to move forward and expand its reach into this important field of study.
